

The Legacy of Kant's Political Philosophy. A Workshop with Howard Williams

Book workshop jointly organized by the DFG Research Group on Transnational Justice and the Research Centre Normative Orders

23 - 24 June 2026

Goethe University, Normative Orders, Room 5.01

Schedule

Tuesday, 23 June 2026

2 – 3 pm	Rainer Forst (Goethe University): Welcome
	Marcus Willaschek (Goethe University): In the Shadow of the Critique of Pure Reason (Ch. 1)
3.15 – 4.15	Peter Niesen (Hamburg University): Kant on Right and the Role of the A Priori (Ch. 3)
4.30 – 5.30	Joel Klein (Goethe University): The Warped Timber of Humanity: Unsociable Sociability in Kant (Ch. 2)
6 – 7 pm	Darrel Moellendorf (Goethe University): Hegel and Kant (Ch. 6)
7.15 – 8.15	Elisabeth Widmer (LSE): The Political Philosophies of Kant and Marx (Ch. 7)

Wednesday, 24 June 2026

10.15 – 11.15	Regina Schidel (Goethe University): Hannah Arendt and Kant's Political Philosophy (Ch. 11)
11.30 – 12.30	Sofie Møller (Cologne University): T.H. Green's Kantian Political Philosophy (Ch. 8)
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
1.30 – 2.30	Rainer Forst (Goethe University): John Rawls and Kant's Practical Philosophy (Ch. 13)
2.45 – 3.45	Eva Buddeberg (Marburg University): Habermas and Kant: Critique and renewal of the German Philosophical Tradition (Ch. 14)